

THE INSTITUTE OF LAW CLERKS OF ONTARIO PRESENTS A FELLOWSHIP COURSE IN e-DISCOVERY & COMPUTER FORENSICS

September 9, 2008 – December 16, 2008

The Institute of Law Clerks of Ontario “ILCO” is pleased to once again offer the e-Discovery and Computer Forensics fellowship course to its members and to the legal community.

This practical and solutions orientated course will be instructed by H&A eDiscovery (“H&A”) a leader in Electronic Discovery and Computer Forensics. H&A is constantly abreast of the latest case law developments and trends from the worlds of law and legal technology where both e-Discovery and Computer Forensics are at the forefront.

This highly interactive course is designed exclusively for litigation support professionals, associates and partners in law firms and corporations with an appreciation of large scale document review and production practices.

Upon successful completion, each participant will be able to effectively and efficiently manage the e-Discovery and Computer Forensics processes and make, or assist in making, strategic electronic evidence decisions as they arise in litigation.

A litigation law background is highly recommended for this course. Students will be evaluated on the basis of one final examination to be written on December 16, 2008.
