

THE INSTITUTE OF LAW CLERKS OF ONTARIO

SECURITIES LAW

The Institute of Law Clerks of Ontario is offering the securities law fellowship course this winter. This course will introduce students to Ontario securities law concepts and help them apply those concepts to the various forms and documents involved in securities transactions. The course covers the concepts of securities law and focuses on standard securities transactions including: public offerings, exempt offerings, continuous disclosure, SEDAR and SEDI registration, and take-over bids. By the end of the course a student should be familiar with the structure of standard securities law transactions and be able to identify and complete a number of documents and forms.

The course instructors are Vanessa Grant, Partner, and Orysia Semotiuk, Partner, who are both members of the Business Law Group at McCarthy Tétrault LLP, Toronto, together with guest instructors on selected topics. Ms. Grant practices corporate and securities law with an emphasis on both public and private life science companies. She also represents private equity and venture capital funds investing in the life science industry. Ms. Semotiuk practices in the areas of corporate finance and mergers and acquisitions for both private and public companies.

A corporate law background is highly recommended for this course.

Students will be evaluated on the basis of one final examination to be written on April 19, 2010.
